Models

The apostle Paul wrote, Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ (1 Cor. 11.1, ESV). Modelling is a key to effective learning. For this exercise, spend at least one hour with an experienced worker in action to observe their skills and patterns. Don't forget to look for their attitude, body language, and response to difficulties. Write down what you are learning as you observe their model of obedience to Jesus.

Name of the person you are observing: _____

In which specific role are you observing this individual?

- ☐ Witness – sharing the gospel message in the streets, the marketplace, or door-to-door
- ☐ Starter – starting and leading unbelievers or disciples in a three-thirds AIM group/church
- ☐ Trainer – training disciples that are training other disciples in a three-thirds AIM group/church
- ☐ Catalyst – equipping leaders in multiple global movements

Date of observation: _____ Hours: _____

What is God teaching you through their example?

Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith.
Hebrews 13.7 (ESV)
